INDEX OF AIR FORCE MANPOWER STANDARDS (AFMSs)

This index is a user's reference of manpower standards. For those manpower standards not marked as being electronically published, users can obtain copies by contacting the Air Force Center for Quality and Management Innovation, Reference Library and Publishing Section (AFCQMI/MQEA), DSN 487-5956. Copies of this index and those manpower standards identified as electronically published, can be obtained from the local Wing Manpower Office at each installation or through the World Wide Web (WWW) AFCQMI home page, address: http://www.afcqmi.randolph.af.mil, under "Products." For users who do not have ready access to a Wing Manpower Office or the WWW, obtain copies from AFCQMI/MQEA. Send comments and suggested improvements on AF Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication, through channels, to AFCQMI/MQEA, Bldg 592, 550 E Street East, Randolph AFB TX 78150-4451. Do not supplement this index.

The following AFMS files, originally in ASCII format, have been converted into Microsoft Word, version 6.0, to facilitate their use: Air Force: 16E1, 16G1, 16H1, 5211J, 5211K, 5216A, 5217, and 5242B. Command-unique: 104A, 1200, 1202, 16ET, 16PP, 1600, 1604, 1608, 1620, 42C1ACAD, and 5310. Changed information or new publications issued since the last index edition are identified with a star (★).

2. Source of Publication. There are three sources of publication for AFMSs. Those AFMSs not coded as being electronically published are available from AFCQMI/MQEA. Those AFMSs coded as being electronically published are located on the AFCQMI Bulletin Board System (BBS). Electronically published AFMSs and the AFIND 18 are located in the AFCQMI BBS Published AFMS Conference ("published" directory). Electronically published command-unique AFMSs and the AFIND 18 are located in the AFCQMI BBS Published Command Standards Conference ("cmd_published" directory). Each installation Wing Manpower Office has established access to the AFCQMI BBS; additional access is based upon individual requirements. All electronically published AFMSs listed in the AFIND 18 are also located on the WWW AFCQMI home page.

3. Explanation of the AFMS Numbering System. Each AFMS is a specialized publication developed for a functional area and numbered with the functional account code (FAC) for that area. FACs can be found in the Air Force Corporate Data Dictionary.
